Photo Release

Occasionally Kids Adventures photographs or takes videos of the trips and activities that we conduct. These are used on bulletin boards, in brochures, for displays, advertisements, etc. I hereby give my permission for Kids Adventures LLC to use any videos or photos taken of my child for the purposes stated above. It is further understood that images of camp, it's campers, and staff are the property of Kids Adventures LLC and may not be used publicly without the expressed written permission of Kids Adventures LLC

Program

Transportation and admission for all scheduled trips is included in the tuition fee. However, campers should bring a non-perishable bag lunch to camp each day unless otherwise notified. Refrigeration and/or cooking of lunches will not be available. Kids Adventures LLC reserves the right to change the schedule and/or activities at any time due to weather, schedule changes, MCPS facility closings, natural disaster, or any real or perceived threat to the safety and security of the Kids Adventures children, or staff at the sole discretion of Kids Adventures LLC.

Childs Health Requirement

It is the responsibility of the parent, guardian, or financially responsible party to make Kids Adventures aware of any conditions that may restrict or affect the child's participation in the activities of this program.

Agreement

I understand and agree to the policies and tuition obligations of Kids Adventures LLC. I wish to enroll my child in the Kids Adventures Summer Camp during the sessions indicated on page 1 of this registration form. I understand that acceptance of this application by Kids Adventures LLC is contingent on space availability and the receipt by Kids Adventures of the required fees. I further understand that I shall be responsible for any attorney or collection fees incurred by Kids Adventures as the result of the collection of camp fees or parent custody issues. This agreement incorporates and is subject to the completion of all necessary paperwork by the parent, guardian, or financially responsible party. I understand that children should bring a non-perishable bag lunch. I further understand that lunches will not be refrigerated.
